A Reprieve Fully Expected for Mrs. Maybrick, Whose Case Has at Last

ENTERED BRITISH POLITICS.

General Boulanger Doesn't Fear Being Taken to France.

MORE JUDICIAL MURDERS IN IRELAND.

Four Out of Six Medical Experts Think Mrs. Maybrick Polsoned Her Husband--A Witness Not Worthy of Belief-The Ballet Girls of England Vindicated-All Eyes on the Conference of the Two Emperors-Kusson Booked for the Russian Mission-A Monstrous Bunquet To-Day

Mrs. Maybrick is no nearer a reprieve than a week ago, despite the efforts made to saye her. Boulanger is called a political dead duck. Gladstone points out some dangers to the United States. Belva Lockwood becomes disgusted in Whitechapel.

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, August 17 .- [Copyright.]-A decision in the Maybrick case was expected to-day, but it has not come at midnight, and will probably be deferred until next week. The newspapers, from the greatest to the smallest, are still full of it. The petitions are still being signed, and systematic agitation is still being carried on.

So far as official action is concerned, however, the condemned woman is no nearer a reprieve than a week ago. Home Secretary Matthews, with whom the case rests entirely, refuses to see deputations, and declares that he will be guided entirely by Justice Stephens' view in the matter. Both are firm men, and neither will be moved by public clamor, though it seems scarcely possible that they can resist an appeal signed by so many eminent medical men. DIVIDED ON PARTY LINES.

In a case of, this nature there is much to be said on either side, but the fact that the newspapers, pre and con, in the Maybrick case, are divided on party lines, tends to discredit their sincerity. The Government organs assert that their opponents are using the Maybrick incident to injure the Home Secretary, and the opposition papers declare that the woman is to be sacrificed to save the reputation of Justice Stephens.

The Lancet, which may be considered an unbiased authority, however, reviews the evidence exhaustively, concluding: "We can have no desire that the royal prerogacive of mercy should not be exercised in this

A DUTY TO THE LIVING RELATIVES and honest jury, and to one of the greatest ornaments of the English bench, we solemuly assert as our unbiased opinion that the verdict arrived at in Mrs. Maybrick's trial was warranted by the evidence."

Several eminent medical men who were invited by the British Medical Journal to express their opinion in the matter decided that the verdict is in accordance with the evidence, four out of the six believing that Mrs. Maybrick was guilty. But the Maybrick case has convinced sensible English people of two things: that there is something wrong with a system whereby the Judge virtually directs the jury's verdict. and that an appeal to the Crown is not a sufficient safeguard in all criminal cases, for it the Judge is to tell the jury what its verdict shall be,

WHERE IS THE ADVANTAGE of having a jury at all, and if a judge's reputation is considered of higher importance than a sinful woman's life, how shall she obtain justice?

Of course the Government is not convinced of any necessity for a change in the system of criminal procedure, as the attitude of the Lord Chancellor, when the question was raised by Lord Fitzgerald, indicates. It is enough that there is a popular agitation behind a movement to lower it in the Tory mind.

"Defects in the judicial system are not appropriately discussed," said the Lord Chancellor, solemnly, "at times of popular excitement about them."

It the Government admits, however, that there are defects in the judicial system, and that the Maybrick trial has brought out those defects, it will be difficult for the Home Secretary to justify himself in refusing to advise the Queen to grant a pardon. It is practically admitted that

THE DOUBT IN THE CASE too great to warrant her being hanged, but if there is that element of doubt she ought not to be kept in prison at all but should go free. The question which occupies Mr. Matthews now is whether she is to go scot free, or whether it shall be imprisonment for life. He is in a difficult position, and, although he had four hours' consultation with the Lord Chancellor, Mr. Justice Stephens, and the experts to-day, he does not yet quite see his way clear to a definite issue. But it is accepted that Mrs. Maybrick will not hang. The general conclusion seems to be that she will be granted a reprieve, and that afterward she will be par-

NOT WORTHY OF BELIEF.

Mr. Macklin, of Roe & Macklin, New York, the American lawyers acting in the interest of Mrs. Maybrick, have cabled to her lawyers here the following letter, which they received to-day:

PROVIDENCE, R. I., August 16, 1889. Messrs. Hoe & Macklin.

GENTLEMEN-Noticing from the morning papers that a Mrs. Yapp, was one of the principal witnesses against Mrs. Maybrick on her trial, I deem it my duty to suggest that if she is the same person who testified in the case of Melvin vs Dume Kate Wheeler, in June, 1835, that she is a person unworthy of belief. She was then 35 years of age, the wife of Thomas Yapp, then in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railroad in Montreal. Her maiden name was Margaret Eleanor Wainwright. She undertook

If Mrs. Maybrick was convicted by the evijustice, and she ought to be entitled to a new trial. I was one of the counsel for Mrs. Smith, and prepared her defense. You will pardon the liberty I take in writing you. Yours Truly, FRANK S. ARNOLD.

BIGGEST BANQUET EVER GIVEN. A Dinner in Paris To-Day That Will Beat

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, August 17 .- The municipality of Paris gives a little dinner to-morrow, at the Palais de l'Industrie, to which 15,000 persons will sit down. The dinner is given to the provincial mayors, who number 13,cillors and journalists who sit down with them number 2,000 more. All day to-day 95 cooks, with 100 assistants, have been at work, and they will work all to-night and to-merrow. They will have to provide 600 gallons of soup, 125 of sauce, 6,600 pounds of fish, 3,400 of beef, 600 ducks and 1,200 geese. The guests will be waited upon by 1,000 The guests will be waited upon by 1,000 waiters and 40 butlers. The number of plates required will be 80,000, and if piled up they would attain a height of 3,000 feet. ere will be 15,000 bottles of claret, 3,000 of Graves, 1,800 of Madeira, 4,500 of Pomard and 4,000 of champagne. They will be kept

The Mayonnaise sauce was made yester-day; 2,000 eggs were used for it, and it is stored in three barrels. The 1,200 geese which are to be served up cold, and the ducks which will be made up into pates, were put on the spit this afternoon. The 30,000 rolls will be baked at the last moment. This is the biggest banquet in the history of the world.

BALLET GIRLS VINDICATED.

Mr. Winterbotham Publicly Apologizes for His Public Insiguations. THY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, August 17 .- J. P. Winter botham, the member of Parliament who, as has been related in THE DISPATCH, brought down the wrath of the ballet girls of the Alhambra, Empire and Pavilion Theaters, by stating in the House of Commons that they wound up in the streets, made the amende honorable like a man on Wednesday. The occasion was the prevention of cruelty to children bill, the clause of which relating to the employment of boys of which relating to the employment of boys and girls under 10 years of age brought about Mr. Winterbotham's original reflections. He said he had been made aware that the words he used were ill-chosen, and had brought a great deal of pain and grief to virtuous girls who were engaged in honorable employment. He wished, therefore, to withdraw publicly what he had stated publicly, while at the same time he wished the House to understand that he didn't withdraw his to understand that he didn't withdraw his grave objection and protest against the door being open to little girls below the age of 10, which he believed led to a profession which was full of risks and dangers to their purity and morality.

Mr. Winterbotham admitted he had no Mr. Winterbotham admitted he had no personal knowledge of the career of ballet girls, or of the ethics of the stage. If he had been better posted he would probably have known that little girls below the age of 10 were not in so much danger from the moral evils that menace the stage as their older sisters. The law, as amended, stands so that children between the ages of 7 and 10 may appear on the stage at the discretion of the petty sessional courts.

BELVA LOCKWOOD DISGUSTED. he Visite Whitechapel and One of Its Policemen Tires Her. THY CARLS TO YES DISPATOR 1 LONDON, August 17 .- Belva Lockwood. who is at present in London, is known to have the courage of her convictions, but by going down alone into Whitechapel to visit the scenes of Jack the Ripper's amusement, an adventure that a great many men would not care to undertake. Lockwood did not use her tricycle, however, though she has it with her in London, but drove down on an omnibus. Among other things witnessed by the ex-candidate for President was a fight in Castle alley, brought about by a talkative woman. "Finally," said Lockwood, in describing the fracas, "a man by a talkative woman. "Finally," said Lockwood, in describing the fracas, "a man raised, his fist and dealt the talkative woman a blow in the face, from which she bled freely, but still continued to talk." The latter circumstance need not have surprised a woman who knows her sex so well as Lockwood does, but she did her duty when ultimately a policeman arrived by saying to him: "Sir, you should have come before." Like all policemen he was callous to this reproof, and responded: "Oh, madam, this is a matter of hourly occurrence. I have just taken two men from this locality to the station." This disgusted the reformer, and she returned to civiliza-

ALL EYES ON BERLIN.

The Exchange of Emperors' Complia Looked on With Interest. (BY CABLE TO THE DSPATCH.)

BERLIN, August 17 .- Berlin has atracted the eyes of all Europe, this week. The meeting of the two Emperors, the toasting of armies, the drinking to each other, and the pleasing sentiments about preserving peace have all been duly chronicled. The military displays were of the usual magnificence, and here again two royal brothers endeavored to vie with each other in compliments. Francis Joseph to show his admiration to Germany, confers a military distinction upon Count Von Moltke, the man who moved down the flower of the Austrian army on the bloody field of Sadowa, and other German functionaries, and the royalties have been like-vise especially recognized. In the midst of it all, an ominous warning comes from Russia, where one of the semi-official papers tells the emperors plainly that they mean war and not peace, but that when they do bring it about they won't find it such a soft thing as they seem to imagine, for the powers outside the triple alliance are quite ready for them. That this sentiment had received official indorsement is shown by the fact that the censor allowed the telegram containing the extracts to pass with

JUDICIAL MURDER IN IRELAND. Two Peasants Die From Typhold Feve Contracted in Jail.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH. LONDON, August 17 .- Two more judicial murders are this week the outcome of Balfourism in Ireland. Two peasants who have been in jail in Londonderry for resisthave been in jail in Londonderry for resist-ing eviction—that is, for barricading their homes against the police on the Olphert es-tate in Falcarragh—have just been thrown out of prison in time to die from typhoid fever, when careful nursing in a hospital was their only hope of recovery. At the time I visited Londonderry jail, just after the wholesale evictions from Olphert's Don-eral hope, last May, this jail was crowded to egal bogs last May, this jail was crowded to such an extent that many prisoners were locked up elsewhere.

If typhoid fever is in the jail—and none but unfortunates and their keepers and Her Gracious Majesty's ministers know to what extent it is raging-the mortality will be Kasson Booked for Russin. (BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCE. 1 LONDON, August 17 .- It is reported here that John A. Kasson, who was one of the Samoan commissioners, will be appointed Minister to Bussia, vice Thorndike Bice. BOULANGER AN EXILE.

The

He Can't Return New to Paris Except to Lead a Revolution-How He Received the News of His Bontence-His Dinner

Spoiled.

(BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.) LONDON, August 17.-General anger, who is the guest of Lord Delaware, at Buckhurst Park, in Sussex, does not fear being taken back to France, since the only extraditable crime of which he has been convicted is the misappropriation of funds, and under the Euglish law, if he is extradited for that offense, he can't be punextradited for that offense, he can't be punished for a political one.

The general verdict of Europe is that Boulanger is politically dead. He cannot return to Paris in any circumstances short of a revolution, without the sentence of the high court of justice being visited upon him. However, one of his followers in Paris tells the correspondent of the Times that the General's condemnation only assists the cause and outlines his future. sists the cause, and outlines his future mysterious watchword among the popula-tion, appear on horseback some fine morn-ing at a point unknown to the police or ing at a point unknown to the police or Government, but known to his supporters, and followed by a mob like that of Gare de Lyon, overwhelm in an hour the head-quarters of the Government in Paris. He will then take possession of the Elysee, Chamber of Deputies, Senate, Hotel de Ville and ministries, and will become master of Paris.

But the brave General is also a prudent General, and there is little chance that he will take the risk. Nevertheless, Parisian detectives have been sent to Dover, Folkestone and other towns along the coast, to re-port his departure in case he should attempt to enter France.

Boulanger received the news of his sentence while at dinner with Lord Delaware, just as he was engaged with a grouse he had shot himself. He smiled over the news, and said that it would only give the French peo-ple another proof of the animus of his enemies, but it was noticed that his dinner was spoiled, and that with all his self command he was unable to conceal his anxiety and despondency.

It is worthy of note that the Imperialists and the control of the con It is worthy of note that the Imperialists and Orleanists are outspoken in their admiration for Boulanger, while the Bonapartists are carefully effacing themselves to make way for their new ally. The Count of Paris is reported to have said: "Send me 25 Boulangists to the next Chamber," and the name of the General was greeted with louder cheers than that of Prince Albert Victor at the great Imperialist happened at the Botal the great Imperialist banquet at the Hotel Wagram, in Paris, on Thursday evening.

GLADSTONE'S SON LIBELED. The Grand Old Man Running the Scandal-

Monger to Earth. LONDON, August 17 .- The extremity which the Tory party is driven in its efforts to discredit Gladstone and injure the home rule movement, is indicated by the fact that a Conservative member of Parliament is on the point of getting into serious trouble, through having libeled Herbert Gladstone. through having libeled Herbert Gladstone. Young Gladstone is a man of high principle and is very popular in the House, where he sits as member for Leeds. The libel, which was published in the Allahabad, India, Morning Post, and reprinted in the London newspapers, accuses him of dishonorable and immoral conduct of an outrageous nature.

Mr. Gladstone has put the matter into the hands of the eminent lawyer, George Lewis. Lewis yesterday declined to say who the member of Parliament was who is the correspondent of the Allahabad Post. Common rumor is, however, that the guilty man is respondent of the Allahabad Post. Common rumor is, however, that the guilty man is either Sir Roper Lethbridge or Louis W. Jennings. Lethbridge is the member for the North division of Kensington, and has been in the civil service in India. All Americans know who Jennings is.

NOT A PRESENT, BUT A PURCHASE,

Edmund Yates Says George W. Childs Bought a Dickens Manuscript.

(BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.) LONDON, August 17 .- Edmund Yates, who is doubtless unaware that George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, holds a poetic license and is independent of commonplace autobiographers, criticises a statement made in that amiable old gentleman's recent magazine article concerning Charles Dickens. Yates declares that the manuscript of "Our Mutual Friend" was not presented by Dick-ers to Childs as a mark of the former's esteem for the latter. He says it was presented by Dickens to a member of the Times staff, who had written an extravagant eulogium of the book, and that journalist at once sold the manuscript to Childs for £250. Yates adds that Dickens and Anthony Trollope had a very brisk discussion at the Atheneum respecting the transaction. Trollope maintaining that such presents

DANGEROUS TO THE STATES.

Some Things That Gladstone Thinks Ought to be Remedied.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.

LONDON, August 17 .- The Rev. Dr. Theo. L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, who has been in England all summer, has just paid a visit to Mr. Gladstone and had an interesting conversation with the great statesman. Dr. Cuyler says that in the course of their interview Gladstone expressed much enthusiasm about America, and remarked enthusiasm about America, and femarica that his first impressions were gathered from Marshall's "Life of Washington," more than half a century ago. Mr. Gladstone regarded the rapid growth of the plutocratic influence in politics and the loose condition of marriage and divorce laws as formidable degrees to the States. dangers to the States.

The conversation turning on John Bright, Mr. Gladstone spoke of him with the deer est affection, and said that in his mer his dear friend the past three years are as if

A DINNER TO RUSSELL H.

Given by Consul General New and Attended by Three Pittsburgers.

PEPECIAL TRLEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LONDON, August 17 .- Consul General New gave a dinner to-night at the Langham New gave a dinner to-night at the Langham Hotel, to Russell B. Harrison. Among the Americans present were Minister Lincoln, Vice Consul O. R. Johnson, John V. Farwell, and Peter Studebaker, of Chicago; Nathaniel Page and J. C. McPherson, of Washington; Lieutenant Commander Emory, Major Post, and R. S. Waring, of Pittsburg; John Russell Young and Frank McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, James R. Bygood, H. S. Willcome, Michael P. Grace, E. F. Moffatt, ex-Consul Charles Russell, John Bicelow, and Francis Youllion.

EVICTED BY MILITIA.

Great Indignation at the Bouncing of Oklahoma Claim Jumper.

GUTHRIE, I. T., August 17 .- The eviction of a claim jumper to-day caused great excitement and much indignation. J. M. Joy built a house on a vacant lot not long ago, and he and his wife made it their home. The owner to-day attempted to remove the couple, but they would not go. The dispute attracted a large crowd, which sympathized with the squatter to such a degree thised with the squatter to such a degree that the owner was powerless. The company of militia which is kept on duty here constantly was finally ordered out, and it was obliged to charge the crowd be-fore it would give way. That done, the eviction was finally accomplished and no AUGUST 18,

ANOTHER SOURCE OF HELP.

WHY THE KIDS KICKS.

We have no objection to the veterans rec

GREATLY WROUHT UP.

Commissioner Angers the White People of His County-Three

Colored Men in Danger of Lynching.

PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

and commissioner of roads for his neighbor

Two Names Likely to be Often Mentioned in the Coming Campaign.

BOYER AND BIGLER.

THE DEMOCRATS COURTING HOPE.

Not Quite So Despondent as They Were a Couple of Weeks Ago.

THEY CLAIM A GOOD FIGHTING CHANCE.

Republican Vote.

From present appearances Mr. Bigler will be chosen by the Democrats for the race against Mr. Boyer, Republican, and probably Mr. Wolfe, Prohibitionist. Only Allegheny county Democrats oppose Bigler's nomination. Philadelphians are all for him. The Democrats are now claiming they have a fighting chance to beat Boyer.

PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, August 17 .- The Reublicans, having named their candidate for State Treasurer and adopted a platform, are quietly, but somewhat anxiously, awaiting the outcome of the Democratic and Prohibition conventions. Some time since it was thought by many of the Demo-cratic leaders that they would not be able to infuse any life into the campaign, but the developments of the pass two weeks have stirred them into the belief that they have good fighting chance this fall.

Magee, McManes and the anti-Quay enders of the State generally favored Boythat Boyer was Quay's personal choice for the nomination, and that he will be forced to suffer for Quay's sins, without regard to his personality, should the bitter feeling which has been engendered continue to

QUAY'S FOLKS HAVE THE PLUMS. In the naming of heads of Federal departments the distinctively Quay people have so far secured all the plums, and it looks as if, according to a Republican worker, the people who are not willing to go to Quay are to be shut out entirely. That they will strike back is considered certain, and it is with this hope that the Democratic leaders are making their arrangements for the fall ampaign.

In spite of the desire for harmony among In spite of the desire for harmony among most of the Democratic leaders, and practically all of the followers, an effort is being made by people professing to represent Mr. Randall to bring about the defeat of Bigler for the nomination. The movement originated among some of the Allegheny Democrats, who seem determined to crowd Bigler off the track. They claim that Bigler will not accept the nomination if tendered to him, and that it would be suicidal to offer it to him, on the ground that it would injure the chances of ex-United States Senator Wallace, who is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination.

THE ANTI-BIGLERITES. THE ANTI-BIGLERITES.

The leaders of this movement are ex-candidate for Auditor General, William J. Brennen, Patrick Foley and other Pittsburg Democrats, who claim that Wallace's nomination would best serve the party's interest. So far, Mr. Randail has not expressed any opinion regarding Bigler's nomination or Wallace's audidacy, although he has been called on for that purpose by many of his followers. This afternoon Patrick Foley, Robert Morrow and a delegation of the Pittsburg contingent who are in the fight to defeat Bigler's nominaare in the fight to defeat Bigler's nomina-tion, went down to Wallingford for the pur-pose of ascertaining Randall's desires re-garding the action of their friends, some of whom will be delegates to the coming State Democratic Convention. What Mr. Randall has to say on this subject he will make public at the proper time. Until that time all expressions purporting to come from him are wholly unauthorized. At the same time, it was announced by one of the pilgrims that Mr. Randall apparently has no desire to in-terfere with the nomination for State Treasurer, and deems it wiser to allow the delegates to select the candidate.

Bigler's friends are not caring much what action is taken regarding his candidacy by the party leaders, as they claim that his nomination is sure to follow the adoption of platform which will be in its character and in favor of a revision of the tariff as outlined by the Democratic State Convention of last year. The majority of the delegates to the State Convention were elected during Cleveland's incumbency of the Presidental office, and Bigler's friends claim that his nomination will be an in-dorsement of Cleveland, and there is little likelihood of a delegation which was elected by Cleveland's friends voting for any other candidate. They also point to the fact that by Cleveland's friends voting for any other candidate. They also point to the fact that the anti-Biglerites have not announced any candidate whom they favor for the nomina-tion, and contend that the movement is made in the interest of Wallace. Outside of Allegheny county there has not yet been heard of any opposition Bigler's nomination, or of anybody else Philadelphia as the controllers of the Philadelphia delegation favor Bigler, looks as though he will be nominated Philadelphia is to be consulted.

Some of the Democratic leaders profess to believe that a very heavy vote will be polled by the Prohibitionists, who will nominate a candidate and adopt a platform. In some quarters it is hinted that Charles S. Wolfe, of Union, may make another fight. The Prohibition leaders have repeatedly declared that the Republic party cheated them, and many are the THREATS OF GETTING EVEN.

They claim that the Republican manage amendment at the same time as they sub-mitted the suffrage amendment, for the sole purpose of having the prohibition amend-ment defeated, and while the returns showed the defeat of both amendments to the showed the defeat of both amendments to the Constitution, yet the Prohibitionists contend that the result might have been different had the prohibitory amendment been submitted without any other question.

Henry W. Palmer, Chairman of the Prohibition State Committee, in an interview about ten days previous to the election of the 18th of June, said that he had every confidence in Quay and the other leaders who had promised to vote for the amendment, but on the night of the election, when the returns were received, he very foreibly the returns were received, he very foreibly expressed himself to the effect that they had deliberately hoodwinked the Prohibitionists and played into the hands of the liquor people.

Since that time the Prohibitionists he Since that time the Prohibitionists have gone on organizing as a third party, and on the 28th of this month they will meet at Harrisburg to adopt a platform and name a candidate. They claim that they will have a separate organization in every county in the State, and that they will poll such a vote as vote as WILL ASTONISH THE LEADERS of the old parties. Not only that, but it has been decided by them to arrange for the placing in the field next year of an entire Prohibition State ticket and candidates for addition, the Prohibition people have been advised by practical Republican politicians to place a complete county ticket in the field. The Philadelphia Prohibition leaders feel The Philadelphia Prohibition leaders feel that, with Corson as their candidate, they will be able to create more interest in their campaign in this city than if they had a man from up the State, and while they say they cannot hope to elect their candidate, yet they claim that if only a fair proportion of those who supported the Prohibition amendment support the Prohibition candidate, they will be able to secure the defeat of the Republican candidate, which they hold would be a victory for their cause. The Son of a Philadelphia Furniture Dealer Cuts an Awful Swell.

SO ENGLISH, YE KNOW

ing John Wanamaker.

and for Two Weeks is Petted and Peted by the Crean of Camden's Society.

A young Philadelphian, son of a furniture lealer, was arrested in Camden, N. J., yesterday, charged with passing a fraudulent check at John Wanamaker's Phitadelphia tore. He had cut a great swell for two weeks, having passed himself off on the Camdenites as the son of an English lord.

for Philadelphia until after the fall elec-tions, and that as a consequence thereof the party workers will refuse to man the polls and do the regulation party work in order to teach the party leaders that the workers are not to be entirely set saide. Many of the younger element of the Eepublican or-ganization are complaining because, as they say, in the distribution of appointments by Collectors Martin, of the Internal Revenue office, and Cooper, of the Customs Departoffice, and Cooper, of the Customs Depart-ment, that the War Veterans' Association has almost entirely monopolized the good places, and that they are being virtuslly shut out. One of the active spirits among the young Republicans said to-day: others, who, while they were not able because of their years to go to the front, have been always consistent Republicans and good party workers. Many of us, it is true, can enter the civil service examinations and secure places in that way, but I tell you there are quite a number who have not received the advantages in early life to secure a technical education, such as would fit them to pass the examination, who are otherwise, as far as integrity and intelligence are concerned, the peers of many who have succeeded in obtaining a high average. We feel that that class of men should be recognized, or else you will find that many who have in the past given their time and money, according to their means, will be found caring little whether the party wins or not.

The bogus lord bought a $5 hat, and offered the forged check in payment, receiving the balance in cash. Justice Schmidts committed the young man, in default of bail, to the county jail to await requisition papers from the Pennsylvania authorities. The charge against him was made by representatives of Mr. Wanamaker, and it understood there are other complaints the same nature to be lodged against him.

AUGUSTA, Ga., August 17.—The mur-der of Colonel Louis M. Walter, ot Ogle-thorpe county, by Jim Huff, a colored employe, has stirred up that county, because the tragedy had in it a tinge of race conflict. Colonel Walter was a leading farmer hood. Among those working under him on the road was Jim Huff, a notorious negro who belongs to a family who is responsible for several murders and other acts of law-his check-book with some surplus baggage in another city."

But the young bloods, proud of their new toy and the sensation they created in society, lent a willing ear, "and eagerly swallowed every story the "English" scion of nobility told, always listening with rapt attention as he described lessness.

On Thursday a white man was added to the force, and that he might be alone Colonel Walter assigned him to work in which Huff had been engaged, and which was apart from the rest of the gang. This aroused the anger of Huff, who objected to fixing up places for white men, saying that the white man should have taken his place with the rest of the gang. Frank Walter remonstrated with Huff for his language, whereupon Huff set upon him with a hoc. Colonel Walter, seeing his brother in danger, went to his relief, only to receive a blow which split his skull open, and from the effects of which he died to-day. HIS FATHER'S PRINCELY HOME old country, and in return some of the wheelmen gave him midnight stag wise suppers where high jinks were cut. The girls just fairly raved over Harburg, ger, went to his relief only to receive a blow which split his skull open, and from the effects of which he died to-day.

The Sheriff organized posses to scour the country for the murderer, one of which has followed him into South Carolina, whither it was learned to-day that he had fled. The friends of Jim Huff, who are numerous in the county, rallied around him and had him from the officers. Prominent among them were John, Jim and Laph Huff, who belped the murderer out of the State. They and all were eager to make his acquaint-ance, and the bogus young lord is said to have made quite an impression on several Camden belles. Camden belies.

When the cruel blow fell on the young man's head this morning he was quite as cool as the proverbial cucumber, while his new-made friends were dismayed at his misfortune and the sorry figure they cut in the matter at being so easily duped. They felt exceedingly cheap over the affair.

belped the murderer out of the State. They were arrested, and were to-night in Ogle he affair.

As a prisoner who has been arreste were arrested, and were to-night in Ogle-thorpe county jail.

The whites are terribly wrought up, and threaten to lynch Huff if caught. There are fears that, being unable to get the prin-cipal, the people may attack the jail for the purpose of getting the three men who are now confined therein, and lynch them. await a requisition cannot be admitted bail, his bogus lordship is in the Came

ATTEMPTS TO BURN A CITY.

The Insurance Companies not Solicitis Business in Dunbury, Cons. DANBURY, CONN., August 17 .- Two more mysterious attempts were yesterday added to the long list of incendiary out rages which have puzzled and exasperated the people of this thriving little city. Early in the afternoon fire was discovered in a woodshed in the rear of a dwelling in in a woodshed in the rear of a dwelling in the outskirts of the city. The flames were speedily extinguished. A strong odor of kerosene indicated that the wood and chips in the shed had been sprinkled with oil.

Exaggerated and unfair statements have been made concerning the withdrawal of insurance combanies. Most of the leading companies continue to do business here as a parall and the people of the air and the proposed the size and the proposed in the city and the proposed of the city and the city usual, and the people of the city are much gratified to-day by the announcement of the Continental Company, of New York, that while they will not make especial efforts to solicit business in this city, they will continue to take such risks as are offered.

THE WORK OF FIENDS.

That Gas Explosion at the Metropolis Was

Deliberately Planned. NEW YORK, August 17 .- The examination of the premises where the fatal gas ex-plosion occurred last night show that it was planned. A plug had been removed from an inch and a half gas pipe, probably just before the closing of the crockery store. An attempt had also been made on Thursday evening, but it was frustrated by a policeman who entered the building and plugged up the leak.

Charges will be made against him for not reporting the incident at his station house.

It is expected arrests will be made to-night. HARD ON THE VILLAGE. All of Its Mills Forced to Go Into a State of Bankruptey. SPRINGFIELD, MASS., August 17 .- The nly two mills running of the five owned by the Shaw Manufacturing Company, at Wales, shut down this week, and attachments were snut down this week, and attachments were placed on goods by the employes. H. E. Shaw, the manager, announces that the firm will go into insolvency early next week. The plant, which is the life of the village, is mortgaged for about $40,000 to the banks. About 200 hands were employed, and the liabilities will amount to over $100,000.

SPAIN SWEPT BY A HURRICANE.

bra of Madrid Blown Down. MADRID, August 17 .- A hurricane swept over the southern part of Spain today. Several churches and other buildings in

HIS PICNIC OVER IN CAMDEN

Rudely Interrupted by an Arrest for Beat

The Democrats are also looking for some help to their ticket from the large army of those who will be shut out in the distribution of the spoils, and who, it is claimed, will take the regulation political method of getting square by knifing the ticket. They say that it was on account of the Democratic dissatisfaction that their candidates suffered last fall, and they maintain the same line of argument will apply to the other side.

It is claimed that President Harrison will not appoint any more heads of departments for Philadelphia until after the fall elections, and that as a consequence thereof the HE POSES AS AN ENGLISH LORD'S SON,

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 CAMDEN, N. J., August 17 .- The upper circles of society in this city are all torn up over the discovery that a young man whom they have been petting and feting as the Hon. T. Harcourt Harbury, of London, son and beir of Lord Alton, of Devonshire, England, is the son of a Philadelphia furniture dealer and a forger. The Hon. T. Harcourt Harbury's right name is T. Linton Plucker, and he was arrested here this iternoon on the charge of having forged his father's name to a check for $35, which be passed at John Wanamaker's in Phila

CAUGHT ON AT ONCE.

The young man made his appearance in Camden two or three weeks ago, representing himself as T. Harcourt Harburg, a son of Lord Alton, and being good looking, elegantly dressed, and of unimpeachable manners, beside having plenty of money and the true English accent, he was immediately taken up by the Camden Wheelmen's Club, who made him a social lion. Members of the club almost worshiped him, some even imitating his peculiar antics of speech and aping his manners. Some of the wiser heads suspected him, but they could prove nothing, and kept quiet. In the meantime, the bogus young nobleman lived on bogus young nobleman lived on the fat of the land and looked pretty, occasionally borrowing small sums on the old pleas that "expected remittances had not come," or he had "left his check-book with some surplus baggage his travels about the world. Everybody he met was made a confidential friend and in-vited to spend a month or so with him in the WOMAN SUFFRAGE LEADERS.

How Mrs. Stunton, Miss Anthony and An Dickinson Put in the Summer.

NEW YORK, August 17 .- Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the veteran head of the Woman Suffrage party in this country, is spending the summer at Hempstead, L. I., with her son, who has recently removed here from Nebraska, is writing her autobiography, and she will is writing her autobiography, and she will remain in retirement until it is completed. She has promised to be the guest of the Seidl Society at Brighton Beach for a short time when Miss Susan B. Anthony goes there to make an address at the end of the month. Miss Anthony is at present visiting in Massachusetts, but she will come to New York soon, and speak before the Seidl ladies on "American Womanhood."

Since the death of her mother, in May

Since the death of her mother, in May last, the health of Miss Anna Dickinson still more seriously impaired. She is in Philadelphia, and under the care of physicians. Her friends hope for her recovery, though she herself expresses no confidence in her return to health. Her home is with her sieter in West Pittston. Pa. but she is in her return to health. Her home is with her sister, in West Pittston, Pa, but she is likely to remain in Philadelphia for some time. She is unable to leave her room or bear any fatigue whatever. COULDN'T BEAT UNCLE SAM.

Four Pittsburgers Who Were Relieved

They Left a Steamer. PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, August 17.-Inspector Brown and Donohue, of Surveyor Beattie's force, found on the persons of four Pittsburgers who arrived to-day on the steame Saale, the following property: On J. Hymann a valuable gold watch, which he said he had bought to present to his brother; on Antoine Hoffmann 17 yards of valuable silk wrapped around his chest, two watch chains, three charms and five bracelets; on L. Winglemann and wife, four watch chains, seven bracelets and a variety of small articles.

All the above goods were sent to the seiz-

All the above goods were sent to the seizure room. The expers were the most surprised lot when their goods were taken that

MRS. STOWE'S HEALTH IMPROVING.

Progress of Her Blogenphy. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. [NEW YORK, August 17.—Hartford friends of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe say she is much improved in health and more vigor ous than she has been in years. Her min is not wholly clear, but she is wide awake at times and is deeply interested in the pub-lication of her son's biography of herself and Prof. Stowe's continued improvement in health is attributed by many of her acquaintances to her great interest in the story of her life which she has helped her son to prepare.

FIRE AT CHAUTAUQUA.

The Flames Burn a Number of Cot and Other Buildings Not Under Con trol at Midnight-The Loss

BE Least $25,800. CHAUTAUQUA, August 17 .- Fire broke out in H. H. Otis' book store on Assembly grounds at 11 P. M. to-night. There is no fire protection except a few feet of garden hose and the bucket brigade. The flames spread and consumed Samuel's optician office, Hart's jewelry store two private cottages and several other small shops, with entire spocks in each. The flames are not under control at 12 o'clock (midnight) and rapidly spreading. The total loss will reach $25,000 and possibly more. Guests are all at work to save neighbors' property.

A FIGHT AMONG PRIENDS.

lovernor Hill Wante a Late Conv and Tammany an Early One.

NEW YORK, August 17 .- Chamberlain Croker left for Saratoga to-day, where he will attend the meeting of the State Com-mittee on Tuesday, and then remain for a few days at the Kayaderosseras Club. He will stop at Troy on his way, to see Edward Murphy, Jr., the Chairman of the State Committee. Most of the other members of the State Committee are on the ground. William P. Mitchell and Thomas Costigan, of the County Democracy, are reenforced by the presence of Senator Michael C. Murphy, who holds a proxy from Police Commissioner John B. Voorhis.

Although all is indecision in the matter of candidates, there are already signs of few days at the Kayaderosseras Club. He candidates, there are already signs of aething of a contest on other points. cometaing of a contest on other points.

One is upon the question whether there shall be an early or late convention. It is a disagreement among friends, however, as Governor Hill is on one side of the ques-Governor Hill is on one side of the ques-tion and Tammany men on the other. The Governor is in favor of a late conven-tion and a short campaign, Mr. Croker and his associates will endeavor to have the convention called as early as possible, and wish to have a long campaign. The success of the Governor will result in a convention early in October, and probably in Syracuse. The carrying out of the Tammany idea will mean a Saratoga convention, called for September 17 or 18, a week ahead of the Republicans.

HE RETURNS TO DENY. Broker Carr Says He Did Not Go to Europe

With His Customers' Funds. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, August 17 .- Mr. Alfred Carr has sturned. He is at home on the Valley road in Orange. Mr. Carr is the gentleman who had an office wherein he dealt in stocks and bonds until last June, when he invited some of his friends to come down to a pier and see him sail for Europe. They called him a good fellow and wished him luck, went back to their offices and drew up checks on him for certain winnings in stock bets, but failed to cash in. When they found that they couldn't realize on the winnings they reviled him and got out attachments on office desks and chairs. They talked with the bookkeeper, who disquieted them by saying that Mr.

chairs. They talked with the bookkeeper, who disquieted them by saying that Mr. Carr had departed these shores with much wealth, and leaving debts to still larger amounts than the wealth carried off.

Mr. Carr came back a week ago, Tonight he denied to a reporter the allegation that he had cloped with money rightfully belonging to others.

otting in the wet.

WILL GET HIS REWARD.

Will be Arrested.

WILKESBARRE, August 17 .- Chief ring. His name is Hundel and he

QUITE A STUBBORN PIGHT.

New York Newspaper Unable to Get Ou

Its Futl Edition.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, August 17 .- The pressmen of the World, who struck at 1 o'clock this morning, have not returned to work. A peace committee visited the business man ager of the World this afternoon, but he re

DAVY CROCKETT'S BIRTHDAY.

In Immense Crowd Assembles at the Plac

KNOXVILLE, TENN., August 17 .- The one hundred and third anniversary of the birth of David Crockett was celebrated

An Increase of G. A. R. Members

KANSAS CITY, August 17 .- Commander in-Chief Warner, of the G. A. R., has completed his report for the past year, which will be submitted to the Milwaukee Encampment. The report shows a total membership of 413,228, an increase of 59,012 members during the year.

A Railroad Dumaged by Earthquake. LONDON, August 17 .- Shocks of earth-during the year.

ond—The Court erred in sustaining the RUINED BY WET WEATHER. Sufferers by Continued Rain. NEW YORK, August 17 .- The proprietors of summer resort hotels who have done poor business of late on account of the rainy weather, are not the only persons who find they have reason to complain. The farmers say that their crops of all kinds have been very greatly damaged, and pro-duce and commission merchants here affirm with one voice that this has been one of the of the State. with one voice that this has been one of the very poorest seasons their business has known in recent years.

Produce of all kinds has been damaged about 50 per cent on the average, and certain crops, such as the peach crop, have been pretty nearly ruined. Muskmelons have suffered greatly, and in New Jersey in particular thousands of the melons are verting in the wet.

One of Johnstown Thieves Traced Up and Police Harris, of Johnstown, who lost his clemency which was signed by the grand jury and petit jurors and the best citizens of the vicinity. He also intended to make a few remarks, and thought that his cliens wife and seven children in the flood, was in this city to day. In a pawnbroker's shop he found a diamond ring valued at $500, he found a diamond ring valued at $500, which was worn by Mrs. Patalin a wealthy lady who boarded at the Hurlbut House, Johnstown.

A few days after the flood, Mrs. Patalin's body was found with the finger upon which she were the ring severed from the hand. Chief Harris traced the thief to Mauch Chunk and found that he had pawned the

THE JURY FOR MERCY. "Very well," answered the Court, and Mr. Ford then read the following:

the Justice of the Peace before whom the case was first tried, and many others. General Ford supplemented the petition by a few remarks. He said he had had op-fused to grant any of their requests.

Only three of the presses are running, and it will be impossible to print the full Sunday edition. The presses are being run by about 18 non-union men, in place of the complement of 70. portunity to learn public feeling and sen ment in the matter, and without a SINGLE EXCEPTION

It seemed to be the desire that the Court exercise as great a degree of elemency as possible. The universal desire seems to be that His Honor do not impose any imprisonment. It is the first violation of the statute of 1883, and the Court could very well impose a fine not exceeding $1,000. Ninety-nine people of every hundred in the State would feel gratified it only a fine is imposed. It has been demonstrated that the power of the State and the arm of the law were adequate to bring the defendant to justice and secure a conviction and it SINGLE EXCEPTION to-day at his birthplace, Strongs' Springs, in Green county. There was a military and civic display, Speeches were made by Governor Taylor, Congressman Alf. Taylor, E. L. Wells, of Ohio, and Colonel R. H. Crockett, a grandson of the old backwoodsman. An immense crowd was present and a fund was started to build a monument.

There was only one exception that knew of—a man died in the ring, question was, what killed him. The water was that the fighter died from over-ertion, not from blows, and the Court we enced his opponent to six months in In conclusion, Judge Calhoun appeals the elemency of the Court.

There was a name. The defer quake were felt to-day throughout Herzego-vina. A portion of the Mostar Railway was damaged, but nothing serious is re-ported.

[Continued of Seventh pa-

FIVE CENTS

dings for Clemency Have Effect Upon the Mississippi Judge.

ONE YEAR IN PRISON

SULLIVAN MADE A SPEECH

But the Sentence Was for the Limit of the Law Just the Same.

AN APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT

Will be Taken, and the Champion is Still Out on Bail-Fitzpatrick Gots Off With a $200 Fine-The Jury Signed a Petition for Mercy-Kilrain Will Probably Skip to Canada-He Does Not Like the Idea of Getting a Similar Dose-The Officer in Judge Terrell vesterday sentenced John . Sullivan to one year's imprisonment for prize-fighting. An appeal for clemency signed by all the members of the jury except one was of no avail. Referee Fitzpatrick escaped with a light penalty. Sultivan's ease will be carried to a higher court.

PURVIS, MISS., August 17 .- Court didnot open till nearly 9 o'clock this morning. Judge Terrell was on hand long before that time and Sullivan was seated before the bar, showing up with Clune before his attorney came to court. He looked as pleasant and unconcerned as usual, although there was a tremble in his eyes after the jury was eated, and he glanced over at the men who had found him guilty. The crowd in the court was small, but it grew larger in a few minutes for hardly was the Court seated when the grand jury filed in. They prosented one indictment and filed out again.

The Sullivan case was then taken up, Judge Calhoun submitted the motion in arrest of judgment without argument. The papers had been left at the hotel, however, and the case went over. District Attorney Neville called the case of John Fitzpatrick. The Judge asked, "What say you, guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty," auswered Mr. Fitzpatrick. court was small, but it grew larger in a few "Guilty," answered Mr. Fitzpatrick.

CLEMENCY FOR MR. FITZPATRICK. District Attorney Neville then addressed the Court, reviewing Mr. Fitzpatrick's con-nection with the fight, and the circum-stances under which he became referee, and closed by saying that he felt justified in recommending the accused to the Court's elemency. Cuptain Fitzpatrick also made statement in his own behalf and conas possible. The Sullivan matter was taken up again and Mr. Green read the motion in arrest of judgment. The Court refused the motion. Mr. Green then submitted a motion for a cision without argument from counsel. The following were the grounds of the motion: (First.—Secause the Court erred in charging the grand jury a second time of its own notion and without the request of the grand jury, and in giving the second charge in the language stated.

ment.
Third—The Court erred in overruling defendant's challenge for cause of Jurors Landrum and Abner.
Fourth—The Court erred in permitting the District Attorney to interrogate jurors on their views, in the presence of the venire, as to the facts of the prize fight within their knowledge.

Fifth-The Court erred in granting each and every one of the instructions given in behalf of the State.

Sixth—The Court erred in refusing to grant instructions asked for by defense, and in modifying some given.

Seventh—The Court erred in permitting the District Attorney in his closing argument to the jury to appeal to the prejudice and patriotism of the jury.

Eighth—The Court erred in overruling the motion in arrest of judgment.

Ninth—The Court erred in permitting Witness Hinton to answer the leading question of the District Attorney as to his remarks made by the Court.

Judge Texrell asked if there was anything further in the Sullivan matter. Judge Cal-

Judge Terrell asked if there was anything further in the Sullivan matter. Judge Calhoun asked if the motion for a new trial stood overruled. The Court replied in the affirmative. Judge Calhoon then asked that, by an agreement with the District Attorney, 60 days be allowed in which to file the bills of exception. He also announced that General Ford would read a petition for elemency which was signed by the grand also desired to make a statement.

Mr. Ford then read the following:

The undersigned, members of the grand jury, empaneled at the present term of the court, and of the petit jury who tried the State vs. John L. Bullivan, convicted of prize fighting, respectfully show to the Court that in view of the fact that this is the first conviction for the offense named in this State, and for other reasons, they respectfully recommend and request that Your Honor will impose no higher penalty than a fine of $1,000, and that no imprisonment be inflicted.

Ed Davis was the only petit juror who refused to sign. The grand jurors all signed it, also did all the merchants in the city and a number of farmers roundabout, as well as the Sheriff, Clerk and officers of the Court, the Justice of the Peace before whom the ant to justice and secure a conviction and it seems from all the history of the case that the defendant should be adjudged to pay a the press and the people.

Judge Calboun also asked to say son thing in Sullivan's behalf, and proceed with an argument of a similar purport that made by Mr. Ford. He referred to action of the English courts, which have reputation for upholding the law. The stence for prize fighting usually imposed them was three days imprisonment.

AN ENGLISH CASE. AN ENGLISH CASE.

fine. That was the sentiment of the St

There was a pance. The defer